

44 Ridgewood Road Algester QLD

4 2 2

Auction on this Saturday 30/10/21 at 2:00pm. Building and pest report for this property is available on request. Do not miss this opportunity as it must be sold!! It is a strong and sturdy double brick home and with brick wall partitions (not the usual gyprock partitions) for its bedrooms. The first floor slab is not the usual timber floor, but reinforced concrete. It's a shame they don't build houses like this anymore. Designed for dual living, it has a kitchen and bathroom on each level. With some TLC, you can easily transform this home into a solid beauty. It is also conveniently located with shops (including a large Asian grocery store) and bus services at your door step. The schools are just a short walk away.
